

Yvonne Porcella

Artist, Author, Teacher

3619 Shoemake Avenue
Modesto, California 95358
(209) 795-1800

Yvonne Porcella, an artist specializing in wearables and fabric art, began in 1962 by making unique garments, wall hangings and quilts. Currently her work is featured in major quilt shows, decorative art galleries and museums.

Her work is a vibrant expression of an artist who knows how to handle color with an apparently endless palette. She hand-paints fabrics to create pleasing compositions. In addition to these subtle pieces, Porcella produces work that is bold and vibrant, using pure color in contrasting and synchronous relationships to convey a dynamic effect.

Her work has toured in national, and international shows of contemporary American quilt makers and is actively collected by individuals and corporations.

Porcella's books reflect the direction of her interest. FIVE ETHNIC PATTERNS was presented in 1977, followed in 1978 by another ethnic pattern book, PLUS FIVE. PIECED CLOTHING (1980) and PIECED CLOTHING VARIATIONS (1981) show Porcella's interests and strengths in ethnic clothing and quilting. YVONNE PORCELLA, A COLORFUL BOOK (1986) portrays her unique color combinations and creative inspirations. In her book COLORS CHANGING HUE (1994) she shows easy methods for fabric painting and 20 projects to make with the fabric. SIX COLOR WORLD (1997) continues the theme of fabric painting with projects. ART & INSPIRATIONS (1998) features 25 years of her artwork. MAGICAL FOUR AND NINE PATCH. (2001) patterns for quilts. ONE zine, (small format book with art and stories. 2008). Available fall 2014 YVONNE PORCELLA A MEMORI - Defining Why.

Porcella teaches and lectures at quilting conferences, symposiums and craft schools. Classes and lectures feature such topics as Strip Piecing, Pieced Clothing, Inspiration, Color, Design, and Fabric Painting. Porcella has been invited to teach, lecture and exhibit throughout the United States and Canada and in Australia, Europe and Japan.
